Moochie's Authentic PHILLY CHEESESTEAK

"Original" vs. "Authentic"--The original steak sandwich was invented in Philadelphia in the 1930's by Pat and Henry Olivieri and was first served without cheese. Locals starting using American or Provolone cheese for variety, and Cheez Whiz was introduced in the 1950's. Although all are considered 'authentic', American cheese is the top choice for Philadelphians, and is the standard for Moochie's cheesesteaks.
